

Dear Prospective Client,

- Does your company require hearing protection?
- Do your employees complain about the comfort or the usability of regular earplugs they are using?
- Would you like to get your employees to buy-in to their hearing protection and thus increase its use?

My name is Mark Reid, owner of Hearing Protection Services, established in 2009. My specialty is custom molded hearing protection. I provide services for New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Texas, and Nevada. Our products range from on-site plugs to lab made products. I am confident that I have a quality product that will benefit your employees and save your company money.

I am enclosing a packet of information that will give you an idea of all the products available to you and your employees. After you have reviewed this information, please contact me for a consultation or for further information.

Sincerely,

Mark Reid
